

Lesson One – Part A

Exercise One – Every sentence has three forms: Affirmative, Negative and Yes/No Question. Change each sentence below into its other two forms.

1. Susan owns a cabinet shop.
2. She can build beautiful furniture.
3. Susan and her son work together.
4. Her son has joined her in the business.
5. He will learn many things from her.
6. She must teach him the trade.
7. He had worked in an insurance office.
8. Susan is a very intelligent person.
9. She was the mayor of her town last year.
10. Susan and her son may run for City Council this year.