

X-word Grammar – Lesson One – Part B

Exercise Two – Every sentence has two X-word places. Mark the two X-word places in each sentence below. If you need to, change the sentence to its other forms to help you find the two X-word places. Follow the example:

✕ English grammar ✕ is difficult.

1. Animals can communicate with signals.
2. Birds learn songs.
3. Vervet monkeys will call out warnings to each other.
4. Apes have been taught signs.
5. Elephants may roar at each other.
6. Cats and dogs are not fond of each other.
7. A bee dances to show the location of flowers.
8. An old parrot told his owner a joke.
9. Hans the horse could count to 100.
10. His owner would ask Hans addition problems.