

X-word Grammar Lesson Four Part D – Exercise One

Exercise One – Separate the shifters from the sentence with parentheses, mark the two X-word places, draw a box around the subject and a wavy arrow over the predicate. Show the ties between the verb and subject and the verb and time. Indicate the time as past or present. What form of the verb is in the sentence?

Follow the example:

1. Many men enjoy sports.
2. My coworkers stayed home last Sunday because of baseball.
3. I watch sports on TV once in a while.
4. My son plays baseball for his college.
5. His team had two games last weekend.
6. My wife and I go to some of his games.
7. We went to a few games in April of this year.
8. His team won all four games that weekend.
9. Our son plays first base.